

Lula Mae Dorton Anderson

1850-1950 Centennial Biography

Lula Mae Dorton Anderson, daughter of Joseph E. and Martha Ann Holdsworth Dorton, was born in Lehi, December 24, 1895.

She graduated from Lehi High School and attended the Brigham Young University for one year from 1904-1905. She taught school in the primary grades for three years in Lehi and one year in American Fork.

June 17, 1908, she married Abraham Anderson in the Salt Lake Temple. She has been a wonderful helpmate to her husband, Being an excellent pianist, she spent a great deal of time acting as his accompanist. She has also taught piano throughout her life.

She has been active in the Latter-day Church. On March 10, 1901. at the age of sixteen, she became organist of the Primary Sunday School. In 1903, she became organist when the pipe organ was purchased for the Tabernacle and continued to hold the position for eight years.

She acted as First Counselor in the Fifth Ward Relief Society from October 7, 1926 to October 1929, and acted as Relief Society President for two years being sustained January 16, 1938.

In 1941 and 1942, she served as Second Counselor in the Stake Relief Society and acted as First Counselor in the First Ward Relief Society from September 1942 until she moved out of the ward in 1944.

She is loved by all who know her for her sweet disposition, and willingness to serve.

At the present time, she is the ward organist, and Relief Society organist for the Lehi Fifth Ward.

Abraham Anderson and Lula May Dorton are the parents of six children, four girls and one boy.